

Risk Assessment – record of significant findings

Risk Assessment for: General Site Wide	Assessment undertaken by: Simon Clarke Volunteer Site Manager
---	---

Hazard	Outcome/injury	Person at risk	Rating	Injury	Controls
Entrance Lane: Uneven surface – danger of tripping. Electric fence – mild electric shock. Vehicles moving – person being hit.	Mild electric shock, Burns, cuts, grazes, bruises, sprains, broken bones,	ALL	Medium	Major	Notice advising of uneven surface . Notices advising of electric fence at regular intervals along lane. Leaders to make their group aware.
Horses – in the fields alongside the lane hence the electric fence.	Mild electric shock, Bitten hand from horse	ALL	Low	Minor	Notices warning of electric fence preventing the horses from escaping. Warning notice of horses crossing the lane from one field to another. DO NOT APPROACH OR FEED THE HORSES.
Campsite entrances gates. Code needed to access Do not attempt to open them by force.	Mild bumps from gate.	ALL	Low	Minor	Leaders should be aware of gate code in advance. Visitors should ring bell for warden access. Gates should be kept closed when groups are on site. Lower gate should be left open for emergency access at all times.

Version: 1

Date: 14/06/21

Author: Simon Clarke

Polyapes

Scout Campsite

Danger of being hit by opening gate.
Car Parks. Signage showing where to park. Speed limit advice. ALL DRIVERS TO BE AWARE OF CHILDREN.	Accident involving vehicle and person.	ALL	High	Major	Drivers must be aware of speed limit at all times and to look out for people in the car park areas.
Mobile mast – near Warden building – fenced off securely	cuts, grazes, bruises, sprains, broken bones,	ALL	Low	Minor	Site Secured
Containers – out of bounds to most people. Service crew/Wardens to be aware if using them whilst groups are in camp.	cuts, grazes, bruises, sprains, broken bones,	Service Crew; Wardens	Low	Medium	Various pieces of equipment needed for upkeep of site. Individual training given in the use of said equipment. Care should be taken not to leave containers open and unattended.
Gas containers near the main toilets. Stored in a cage away from campers and sites. Notices attached to cage.	Minimal injuries as containers are caged so not accessible.	ALL	Low	Low	Caged area; notices.
Wood piles – near the containers; on the Ridge. No	Minimal injuries – splinters, scratches.	ALL	High	Medium	Leaders to inform their groups of dangers associated with wood piles No climbing; strong boots only.

Version: 1
 Date: 14/06/21
 Author: Simon Clarke

climbing and strong boots to be worn. Be aware of nails etc
Outside of Warren/Mowgli - trip hazards. Steps; slope and Mowgli veranda – splinters from handrails; uneven surfaces; slope slippery when wet.	Minimal injuries – bumps, bruises and splinters.	All	Low	Low	Notices advising care on slope, steps and veranda, especially when wet.
Totem pole in cub field. Fenced off with gated access. Memorial on Memorial field – fenced.	Minimal injuries – scratches, splinters	ALL	Low	Low	Leaders to be responsible for allowing access inside the fence for specific reasons – rubbings on various surfaces (totem pole) Memorial – out of bounds unless given permission by Wardens.
Out of bounds areas – Rear of Warren and Mowgli; mast; gas tanks; behind any toilet blocks; cess pit; site maintenance	cuts, grazes, bruises, sprains, broken bones,	All	Low	Low	Leaders to be made aware of all out of bounds areas. They will be expected to discuss/point out the areas to their groups.

Version: 1

Date: 14/06/21

Author: Simon Clarke

equipment; containers; All areas have notices stating out of bounds.
--	--	--	--	--	--